

Fire Safety “Train the Trainer”

Course:	Fire Safety Train the Trainer
Who Should Attend:	Anyone who has a responsibility for facilitating in house Fire Awareness and Fire Warden Courses.
Location:	On your premises for up to 15 people or alternatively at one of our locations throughout the UK
Length of Course:	Three days
Instructor Details:	Our trainers have in excess of 15 years fire service experience and have designed and developed “powerful presentation techniques courses” that have been integrated into this course.

Information on the course:

Our Train the Trainers course is completely different to other fire presentation skills training you may have ever taken. You will leave the course with a model for achieving excellence as a fire safety presenter.

The training is totally experiential and you will be challenged to change your beliefs about the fear associated with public speaking. Expect to have fun while you learn, plus you'll get individual coaching and feedback from certified trainers which will dramatically accelerate your learning.

The training will include all relevant information to enable you to deliver Fire Awareness and Fire Wardens courses and you will also be trained in some of the most advanced presentation techniques available today.

Aim - The aim of this course is to give sufficient information and instruction to enable the course attendees to deliver clear and powerful presentations.

Course Structure - The course will be structured to enable maximum learning for all students no matter what level or knowledge the student has prior to attending the course.
