

Fire Safety Training for Managers

Course:	Fire Safety Training for Managers
Who Should Attend:	Employers, business owners or anyone who has control of a premises or part of a premises
Location:	On your premises for up to 15 people or alternatively at one of our locations throughout the UK
Length of Course:	One day
Instructor Details:	All of our instructors have at least 10 years service in one of the UK Fire Services

Information on the course:

This course has been designed to give personnel the necessary information, knowledge and training for them to be competent to manage their facility.

The course will include the following information:

- Fire Legislation
- Definition of the responsible person
- Duties of a fire safety manager
- Duties of a competent person
- Fire risk assessment – reducing the risk
- Managing and maintaining the equipment (life safety systems)
- Administration - recording and testing of life safety systems
- Maintaining escape routes, emergency lighting
- Staff training (first day induction, annual training and training for specific roles i.e. fire wardens)
- Live fire extinguisher training
- Managing disabled and young persons in your building
- Fire policies
- Evacuation plans
- Co-operation with the emergency services
- Dangerous substances and flammable materials
- Managing your facility on a day to day basis

A comprehensive handbook will be provided for all personnel that attend the course and will prove to be an invaluable reference guide for the future.

Telephone advice and guidance will also be offered to all personnel attending the courses provided by the Fire Training Academy.

The Fire Training Academy – Protecting you and your business

THE FIRE TRAINING ACADEMY
– EXCELLENCE IN FIRE SAFETY TRAINING